

IFMA CHAPTER CHRISTMAS BANQUET & NETWORKING SEMINAR - TALENT RETENTION

HERE TODAY,
HERE TOMORROW?

According to the latest labour force statistics released by the Census and Statistics Department, the unemployment rate Hong Kong has fallen to the lowest level since March 1998. Where as at the same time researches indicated Hong Kong ranking second high in attrition rate among 13 other countries in the region.

Join The Hong Kong Chapter of IFMA at our Christmas Banquet and discuss with our guest speaker Simon Shoebridge on how this is affecting the FM industry and share your views on how you would react to keep talents within your company.

Mr. Simon Shoebridge

Simon graduated from the University of Sydney with a Bachelor of Arts majoring in Industrial Relations and Human Resource Management; he also holds a Masters Degree in the same fields from the same university.

Simon began working for Judd Farris in their Sydney office before the opportunity arose in 2005 for him to relocate to Asia and help with the set up of the Hong Kong office.

At present he is a Senior Consultant at Judd Farris Asia. He heads up the Technical team which encompasses Facilities Management, Project Management, Architectural Services, and Corporate Real Estate Services.

Simon has helped his clients recruit a broad variety of roles across the entire Asia Pacific region. Those clients range from local and international developers, property agents and consultancies, investment banks and other multinational corporations.
