THE HONG KONG CHAPTER OF IFMA SEMINAR Fung Shui and Environmental Management Friday 18 September 2009

School of Feng Shui has been developing in China since 2000-3000 b.c. There were few lines in one of the ancient books called Book of Chinese Poetry talking about how a man chose a location for building a palace or office. Our ancestors then observed the relationship of mankind, universe and earth to develop a school of Feng Shui which is to let people find out the best way to live and work well in nature environment. Through the practices of feng shui, people may know how great the universe creator is.

This IFMA seminar will look at different aspects of Fung Shui and Environment Management from the view point of our honorable speaker – Ir Chan Kei-Feng, Paul.

Honorable Speaker - Ir Chan Kei Feng, Paul

Using a pen-name called Kei-Feng Chan, Ir Paul Chan is a holder of MBA, Deakin University, Australia and MSc (Eng. Sc) from Warwick University, UK, a qualified ISO QMS Lead Auditor, Registered Safety Auditor, and NLP Practitioner; and also a member of HKIE. Currently he works in the public transport industry and in the meanwhile he also amateurly practices Chinese calligraphy, seal engraving, modern poem writing, studies I-Ching, and collects ancient jades. He is often invited to participate in many local and oversea exhibitions of paintings and Chinese calligraphy and his artworks are collected by the HK Chinese Orchestra, the HK Chinese University, and artwork collectors alike. In 2003, he was invited to present his poems in the 23rd World Congress of Poets in Taipei, Taiwan. On 3rd – 5th January, 2009, he held his first personal calligraphy exhibition at the City Hall, HK and his second personal exhibition is now being held in the HK Chinese University in period of 5th – 19th September, 2009.

He is currently the Deputy Secretary of the HK Lan Ting Society; member of the HK Calligraphy Association and the HK International Calligraphers Association, the Executive Secretary of the HK Blueleaves Poetry Association, and an associate of the Qiu Shui Poetry Journal, Taiwan. Apart from his artistic exhibits, he frequently hold seminars on Face-reading and Feng Shui for HKIE and other public associations. He is now a newspaper columnist on art and geomancy in the HK Economic Journals and on face-reading & palmistry in HK Sheung Pao.
