Outsourcing and Professional Risk in Facilities Management

23 October 2008

The outsourcing of the management of facilities will usually involve a change in allocation of risk from first party "owner" a to a third party "provider". This brief presentation will highlight the difference between first and third party risk, consider the duties a "provider" may owe to an "owner"; look at possible insurance solutions for both parties and related contractual issues.

Nigel Wood, Director, Jardine Lloyd Thompson Limited

Nigel has 18 years construction sector related insurance experience, the last 9 of which have been in Hong Kong. He is a Board Director, leading the Hong Kong construction team and is responsible for all JLT construction accounts. In this role Nigel manages the accounts of Gammon Construction Limited, Hong Kong Land, Ocean Park (Master Redevelopment Programme) and other large developers and contractors in Hong Kong and Macau. For each account Nigel is responsible for providing insurance consultancy advice and insurance programme design.
